

ANNOUNCEMENT

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR RESEARCH IN INCOME AND WEALTH

Sixteenth General Conference

The sixteenth general conference of the International Association for Research in Income and Wealth will be held at the Parkhotel Pörschach, Pörschach, Austria, August 19–26, 1979. The tentative program is listed below. Non-members of the Association wishing to attend should write to the Secretary of the IARIW, 37 Hillhouse Ave., New Haven, CT 06511, U.S.A.

Tentative Program

(As of March 1, 1979)

SESSION 1. THE CHANGING PATTERN OF INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL FLOWS IN RELATION TO THE EXTERNAL SECTOR OF THE NATIONAL ACCOUNTS

Organizer: R. E. Lipsey, National Bureau of Economic Research, New York

A. Financial Assets and Debt

1. The changing real value of international financial assets
Frank Veneroso, Boston University
2. External debt and capital flows: relation between the theory and the data
Joe W. Saxe, IBRD

B. International Financial Flows

1. Uses of external finance by non-oil LDCs
Millard Long, Boston University
2. Estimation of financial resource flows to developing countries
Bevan Stein, OECD
3. International banking flows
Helmut Mayer, Bank for International Settlements
4. International capital flows and U.S. credit markets
Michael P. Dooley, Federal Reserve Board, Washington
5. Balances of payments analysis and monetary theory
David T. Devlin, Citibank, New York
6. Financial flows to Canada
Bower Carty and Keith McAllister, Statistics Canada

SESSION 2. BALANCE SHEETS AND RECONCILIATION ACCOUNTS

Organizer: Bernard Brunhes, Commissariat du Plan, Paris

1. Sector balance sheets in the United Kingdom
J. Hibbert, Central Statistical Office, London
2. Balance sheets in French national accounts: methodological problems and main results
A. Benedetti, G. Consolo and A. Fouquet, INSEE

3. The methodological and practical problems and results of balance sheet computations in Hungary
Janos Arvay, Central Statistical Office, Budapest
4. Survey of country practices in compiling balance sheets
Derek Blades, United Nations Statistical Office
5. What a model of household wealth accumulation brings to reconciliation accounts
A. Babeau and D. Strauss-Kahn, CREDOC, Paris
6. Profitability and growth of capital employed through a vintage capital model
G. de Murard, Paris
7. The application of the differing concepts of maintenance of the existing capital of the corporate sector
J. W. S. Walton, Inland Revenue, London
8. Some conceptual problems of national balance sheets
J. W. Kendrick, George Washington University, Washington

SESSION 3. CHANGES IN RELATIVE PRICES (INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL TERMS OF TRADE)

Organizer: Kjeld Bjerke, Copenhagen

1. Inflation et deformation des prix relatifs
G. Maarek and P. Fröchen, Banque de France
2. A Hungarian case study on terms of trade
Andras Nyilas, Economic Research Institute, Budapest
3. Measuring inter-sectoral and international terms of trade: some methodological issues
J. B. D. Derksen, Institute of Social Studies, The Hague
4. Relative prices and import substitution: sectoral analysis on Norwegian data for the period 1949–1969
Petter Franger, Central Bureau of Statistics, Oslo
5. External terms of trade of the Federal Republic of Germany using differing models of deflation
Oswald Angermann, Statistisches Bundesamt, Wiesbaden
6. The use of production accounts to identify the gain from foreign trade by industrial sector
Owen Nankivell, Central Statistical Office, London
7. Some reflections on the terms of trade for Denmark in the period 1949–76
Kjeld Bjerke, Copenhagen
8. Title to be announced
J. S. Wells, Statistics Canada

SESSION 4. PUBLIC AND PRIVATE EXPENDITURES FOR SOCIAL PURPOSES: MEASUREMENT, DISTRIBUTION AND INTERNATIONAL COMPARISON

Organizer: Hans J. Adler, Statistics Canada

1. Measuring the immeasurable: foundations for a new approach of well-being measurement
W. K. Brauers, Brussels

2. Social protection accounts and their integration with national accounts and physical data on persons protected
J. B. Broderick, Central Statistics Office, Dublin
3. Economic accessibility: a concept for measuring the outcome of subsidizing specific services
H. Brungger, Federal Bureau of Statistics, Berne
4. Public and private spending for pollution abatement and control in the U.S., 1972-1977
John E. Cremeans, Bureau of Economic Analysis, Washington
5. Title to be announced
R. Eisner, Northwestern University, Evanston
6. Title to be announced
B. Ferran, United Nations Statistical Office
7. Public and private expenditure for cultural purposes: a case of performing arts in Japan
Y. Kurabayashi, Hitotsubashi University, Tokyo
8. SNA and SSDS
Milton Moss, Washington
9. Defense sociale: socialisation de la depense
Philippe Pommier, INSEE, Paris
10. Social accounts
D. Ramprakash, Central Statistical Office, London
11. Distribution of government expenditures among households in the United States
Patricia Ruggles, Policy Studies Institute, London, and Michael O'Higgins, University of Bath
12. The measurement to total household consumption (or expenditure)
C. T. Saunders, Sussex European Research Center
13. A generalized resource accounting system for the quality of life
Nestor Terleckyj, National Planning Association, Washington
(contributed paper)

SESSION 5. CONTRIBUTED PAPERS

1. Introduction a l'axiomatique des procedures d'aggregation
O. Arkhipoff, INSEE
2. Life-cycle patterns in the household accumulation of wealth
E. Wolff, New York University
3. The gap between rich and poor nations
K. Sabzevari, Iranian National Steel Industries Co.
4. Growth and inequality in postwar Japan: a case study
N. Takayama, Musashi University, Tokyo